Frequently Asked Questions

1. Is the Wallet ID still valid if I close my browser before I've sent payment?

- Yes, it is tied to your account indefinitely.

2. Is it ok to close the browser tab before the transaction is confirmed on the blockchain?

- Yes, order will still be marked paid when payment is confirmed.

3. What if I send payment after the 10 minutes has expired?

- If BTC is sent to that wallet ID after the 10 minutes has expired the money sent will be available in the users account balance the next day. The order will not be marked paid.

4. What if I accidentally send the wrong amount for the order?

- If an amount not equal to the full order amount is sent the order will not be marked paid. The amount sent will be available in the users account balance the next day.
